"In addition to recognising their individual personalities and service, by naming these new partners and counsels we are showing that Luther is a good place to grow your career", says Elisabeth Lepique, Co-Managing Partner at Luther.

"We are proud that our law firm continues to develop in a dynamic way, alongside our new partners and counsel colleagues", says Markus Sengpiel, Co-Managing Partner at Luther.

Careers at Luther

With the Luther academy – which consists of the Luther Law School and Luther Campus – Luther offers a comprehensive internal firm continued training programme for every career stage.

Luther also created the "Partner Development Programme" three years ago specifically for Senior Associates with a stated ambition to become partners. In the programme, Senior Associates receive support in developing their own partner business case and receive training sessions on leadership and business development.
