“Withholding Taxes on International Transactions in Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand”

 Date: Wednesday | 25 March 2026

 Time: 5:00 – 6:00 PM (Singapore & Malaysia, UTC+8) | 4:00 – 5:00 PM (Thailand, UTC+7) | 10:00 – 11:00 AM (Germany, CET)

 Platform: Online via Microsoft Teams - link will be provided upon successful registration.

Withholding tax continues to be one of the most significant area of tax risk and financial exposure in cross-border transactions across Southeast Asia. For multinational groups operating in Malaysia, Singapore, and Thailand, differing domestic rules, double tax treaty interpretations, and enforcement practices can materially affect transaction costs, cash flow, and compliance outcomes. Our experienced tax and legal practitioners from Luther offices in Malaysia, Singapore, and Thailand will discuss:

Key discussion

- The scope of withholding tax on cross-border payments, including interest, royalties, and service fees
- Applicable withholding tax rates and key domestic law exemptions
- Application of double tax treaties, including common treaty relief challenges
- Frequent compliance pitfalls, audit trends, and areas of heightened tax authority focus
- Recent developments and practical structuring considerations to mitigate withholding tax exposure

Speakers:

- David Martiny: Lawyer, Tax Advisor, Head of Tax South-East Asia, Partner, Luther Singapore
- Maiké Rohwer: Head of Tax, Tax Advisor, Luther Malaysia
- Martin Liebenow: Head of Tax, Tax Advisor, Counsel, Luther Thailand

Participation is free of charge. Register via: vietnam@luther-lawfirm.com

We look forward to welcoming you and engaging in this timely and important discussion.

Warm regards,
