Stock Corporation Law at its best - Festschrift for Eberhard Vetter

For the 70th birthday of our long-standing partner Dr. Eberhard Vetter, a total of 62 friends, colleagues and companions of the jubilee's have come together under the editorship of three renowned representatives from academia and the legal profession to publish a commemorative publication comprising more than 900 pages with articles on stock corporation and group law.

Dr. Eberhard Vetter has broad experience and knowledge in corporate law, in particular in stock corporation and group law. After many years working for companies and holding companies in mechanical engineering and plant construction as well as the insurance and financial services industries, he joined Luther and its predecessor companies in 2003.

This commemorative publication pays tribute to Eberhard Vetter's scientific publications and his commitment to research and teaching in the field of stock corporation and group law. The articles deal with current topics from the entire field of stock corporation and group law, in particular the law of the Supervisory Board.

The commemorative volume was published by Otto Schmidt Verlag. The editors are Prof. Dr. Barbara Grunewald, Professor Emeritus of Civil Law and Commercial Law at the University of Cologne, Prof. Dr. Jens Koch, Professor of Civil Law, Commercial and Corporate Law at the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn, and Luther partner Dr Jörgen Tielmann.
