Luther advises DOMUM on the acquisition and financing of three Amazon FBA businesses

Hamburg/Frankfurt – Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH provided legal advice to the Beteiligungsgesellschaft DOMUM Unternehmer & Kapital GmbH (DOMUM) on the acquisition and financing of three Amazon FBA (“Fulfillment-by-Amazon”) businesses from the food supplement sector.

With this transaction, DOMUM will unite three of the most relevant German Amazon sellers of premium food supplements (Nature Love, Feel Natural and natural elements) under one roof in Natsana GmbH. The resulting synergies will provide Natsana with new opportunities as well as the development of further national and international markets in the area of food supplements.

DOMUM is still a young German management and investment company which specialises in company transfers, succession situations and challenges in the area of digitalisation in German medium-sized businesses.

Luther has already advised DOMUM on earlier projects and within the scope of this transaction provided comprehensive due diligence advice, advice on structuring and the implementation under corporate law through the parallel negotiation of two company purchase agreements, as well as on acquisition financing.

The acquisition financing was provided by two debt funds. The transaction is therefore also a novelty in the German market with regard to the financing structure: to date, there have been no known leveraged buyouts of companies that operate almost exclusively as Amazon FBA sellers. It is expected that such transactions, which offer interesting opportunities for equity and debt investors, will be implemented more frequently in the future.
