Luther Managing Partners Lepique and Sengpiel re-elected

Cologne – The partnership of Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft has confirmed Managing Partners Elisabeth Lepique and Dr Markus Sengpiel in office. Both will lead the firm for another four years from 1 July 2022.

"We want to grow with the upcoming economic and political challenges of the coming years and continue to serve our clients as a leading full-service law firm and reliable partner. We thank our colleagues for their continued trust," Elisabeth Lepique enthuses.

"We are also looking forward to driving forward the digitalisation and internationalisation of the firm and to further establishing the unyer organisation founded in 2021 as well as the Luther.Solutions division," adds Dr Markus Sengpiel.

The current term of office of the two Managing Partners includes being named JUVE Law Firm of the Year 2019 as well as Law Firm of the Year: Germany and European Law Firm of the Year 2021 by The Lawyer.

Prof Dr Robert von Steinau-Steinrück, Chairman of the Partners' Committee: "I am confident that with our two Managing Partners, we will excellently master the great challenges that lie ahead. I would like to sincerely thank both of them for their successful work as well as their great commitment over the past four years and I am pleased that this will continue."
