

Luther expands its advisory services in the area of investment and banking regulatory law

Frankfurt, 15.06.2023 – Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft welcomes three new lawyers to its Capital Markets, Banking & Finance team: Partner Henning Brockhaus (47) and Senior Associates Victoria Schöll (43) and Anne Gensert (33) join from KPMG Law.

Henning Brockhaus is an expert in investment and banking regulatory law and has been advising capital management companies, asset managers and institutional investors on investments, day-to-day business and regulatory issues, particularly in the area of securities funds, for almost 20 years. Before joining KPMG Law, Henning Brockhaus worked in the legal department of DWS Investment for several years and thus knows the day-to-day business of his clients from his own experience. Henning Brockhaus studied law in Bielefeld.

Victoria Schöll studied law in Frankfurt. Her focus is on capital market law, investment law and securities supervision law.

The third member of the team, Anne Gensert, studied law in Leipzig, also advises on investment, financial and regulatory issues and is currently completing her doctorate. She will strengthen the Leipzig office.

Christoph Schauenburg, Luther Partner and Head of the Capital Markets, Banking & Finance service line: "We are very pleased to be able to further strengthen our expertise in advising on asset management issues and securities funds. The full-service legal support on the topics of 'Investment Funds & Asset Management' has become an important focus of our advisory services over the last few years, so the team is a great addition for us."
