

Luther starts the financial year 2023/2024 with three new partners and eleven new counsel

Cologne, 04.07.2023 – On 1 July 2023, Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft will admit three colleagues to the partnership. Eleven further colleagues will be appointed as Counsel at the same time. The addition of two more partners from other law firms rounds off the promotions at the start of the new financial year.

- Tim Rauschning (Hamburg), Michael Ströbel (Stuttgart) and Daniel Zintl (Leipzig) are admitted to the partnership.
- Katharina Klenk-Wernitzki (Cologne), Cosima Flock (Düsseldorf), Adrian Freidank (Cologne), Christiane Frye (Essen), Dr Nora Otoo (Essen), Laura-Jane Williams (Frankfurt), Ekkehard Hübel (Hamburg), Katja Neumüller (Cologne), Dr Moritz Mentzel (Berlin), Christian Brauns (Stuttgart) and Verena Dimarch (Munich) move up to Counsel status.
- Partner Henning Brockhaus (Frankfurt) comes from KPMG Law, Partner Prof Dr Christian Burholt (Berlin) from Baker McKenzie.

"We are pleased that many colleagues were able to develop further at Luther this year. We were again able to admit a number of colleagues to the partnership and appoint new counsel. We were also able to offer two external partners a new professional home. Our Luther.academy offers sustainable support for the development of our talents," says Markus Sengpiel, Co-Managing Partner at Luther.

"Each of the individuals brings their own personality, performance and expertise. We are proud to work with them to further expand our position in the market, to break new ground and to continue to achieve great things as a team," adds Elisabeth Lepique, Co-Managing Partner

- Tim Rauschning joined Luther's Complex Disputes and International Arbitration practice areas in 2012. He specialises in complex disputes, in particular international arbitration. In the energy and infrastructure sector, he advises and represents clients in particular in disputes in all areas of the energy industry.
- Michael Ströbel is a specialist in M&A transactions and venture capital. He joined Luther's team in 2017 and advises national and international investors and companies on the acquisition and sale of companies, strategic and financial investments and other structuring considerations.
