

New partner from July 2025: Luther gains renowned expert in corporate/M&A with Dr Katrin Stieß

Munich, 1 July 2025 – Dr Katrin Stieß (49) will be joining the M&A team at Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft in Munich as a partner on 1 July 2025. Stieß is an experienced and successful advisor in the technology and banking sectors. She was most recently a partner at Norton Rose Fulbright LLP, also in Munich, where she is considered to be well connected.

Dr Katrin Stieß specialises in national and cross-border M&A, private equity and venture capital transactions as well as corporate restructuring. Her clients primarily include German and international technology companies, banks, financial investors and asset managers. Katrin Stieß regularly advises on M&A transactions in connection with the digital transformation of business models.

'I am extremely excited to further strengthen Luther's successful and award-winning position as a market leader in the technology and banking sector,' says Dr. Katrin Stieß.

"We are delighted to welcome Katrin Stieß to our team. Her many years of experience and in-depth industry expertise, particularly in markets relevant to technology companies and banks, are a valuable and strategically important addition to our rapidly growing Corporate/M&A practice. The development in this segment was extremely positive last year, as demonstrated not least by our top positions in the relevant league tables," explains Dr. Stefan Galla, Head of the Corporate/M&A service line at Luther.

About Dr Katrin Stieß:

Katrin Stieß received her doctorate in Cologne and then worked as a lawyer for both Linklaters LLP and Graf von Westphalen. She joined Norton Rose Fulbright LLP in Munich in 2007, most recently as a partner, where she headed the Industry Business Group Technology for the EMEA region. She is ranked by Legal 500 as a 'Next Generation Name' in the field of M&A. The industry publication JUVE regularly lists her as an expert in the fields of M&A and PE.
