Luther advises Finnish healthcare provider Mehiläinen on market entry in Germany

Hanover – The Finnish-based international healthcare company Mehiläinen Oy has acquired the renowned Dalberg Klinik AG in Fulda. The entire transaction as well as the parallel certification of the digital health platform of the subsidiary BeeHealthy were legally advised by the Health Care & Life Science team of Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft.

With the acquisition of Dalberg Klinik, a high-quality hospital for orthopaedic surgery, the Mehiläinen Group is expanding into the German market as part of its international growth strategy. With the acquisition, Mehiläinen aims to expand its service offering in line with the company's broad range of healthcare services as well as to further develop its outpatient services.

The availability and quality of the new health services are to be improved by additional digital services of the Mehiläinen Group. The company also carried out the necessary extensive certification process for Germany with the support of Luther's health care experts in parallel to the acquisition process.

About Mehiläinen

Mehiläinen has been a well-known private provider of health and social services in Finland since 1909, offering comprehensive, high-quality health care services to private, corporate and municipal customers. Mehiläinen serves approximately 1.3 million customers annually at over 540 locations with more than 22,300 employees and private physicians.
