Price Adjustments along the Supply Chain – Seller's and Buyer's Perspective

Webinar, 17 November 2022, 10.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. CET

Agenda

unyer Commercial Price Adjustments along the Supply Chain – Seller’s and Buyer’s Perspective

Inflation, increasing gas costs, supply bottlenecks – the causes of steadily rising commodity prices seem endless. But unlike the volatile value of goods, the selling prices in economic chains – often agreed months ago – remain fixed. Requests for subsequent price adjustments are the result. Our commercial and trade law experts would like to present to you the adjustment options available and discuss how profitability can be effectively achieved or secured through contractual arrangements.

We look forward to your participation in our upcoming webinar.
