Best Recruiters 2016/17: Luther has come top in the legal consultancy sector

Cologne – Law firm Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH has come top in this year's Best Recruiters Study in the legal consultancy sector, thanks to its outstanding high-quality recruitment.

Best Recruiters examined the recruiting quality of over 500 top German companies and institutions from 23 different sectors against four factors: online recruiting presence, online job advertisement analysis, dealing with applicants and applicant feedback. The study is carried out annually on behalf of the Austrian organisation Career Verlag. This year, Luther came 1st among the legal consultancy firms and 36th among German employers from all sectors.

"Professionalism, passion for our work and consulting that gets straight to the point sum up the value proposition Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft gives its clients. Offering candidates the best possible candidate experience is a prerequisite to attracting the candidates who want to fulfil these criteria in their everyday work later on," says Torsten Schneider, Human Resources Director at Luther. "We see the award for Best Recruiter as recognition and incentive alike: to stay among the top employers in the future, we focus on personal contact and responding quickly during the application process. With over 2,500 applicants every year, that is no mean feat. However, we don't want to cut corners at the applicants' expense."

azur100: Luther among top employers for young lawyers

Luther is one of Germany's best employers for young lawyers: this was also recently confirmed by the "azur100" ranking, published by the JUVE publishing house in February 2016. The survey took a number of factors into consideration, such as satisfaction with the employer and salary, the number of new appointments and its attractiveness as a "dream employer". In this ranking Luther again achieved an impressive position in the field of the top 100 employers, in 20th place.
