Luther provides advice to personnel service provider Sempart on merger with expertum

Stuttgart – Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft assisted the personnel service provider Sempart in the merger with expertum group. A comprehensive personnel service provider with 41 locations in Germany is established from this merger.

The expertum group and Sempart GmbH merged with effect from 1 May 2015. The former sole shareholder of Sempart GmbH, Markus Winkler, transfers his shares to the group and participates in expertum.

The objectives behind the merger are extending the dense network of subsidiaries throughout Germany and increasing subsequently the market share in the personnel service industry in Germany. Through the acquisition, expertum will consolidate its presence especially in the Rhine-Main and Rhine-Neckar region and is well-positioned to counter the increasing lack of skilled labour.

About Sempart

Sempart is a personnel service provider operating successfully in the market since 1992 and specialising in the fields of banking, finance, industrial, IT and office. Sempart focuses its activity on skilled workers and business people and has a broad customer base in the areas of chemical as well as office and administration. Branch offices are located in Darmstadt, Frankfurt, Höchst, Mainz, Mannheim, Ulm and Wiesbaden.

About expertum
