Dr. Borbála Dux strengthens Luther in the area of complex disputes

Cologne – On 1 October 2018, Dr. Borbála Dux of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer will join the Cologne office of Luther Rechtsanwalts-gesellschaft as a partner. The 37-year-old attorney will strengthen Luther in the areas of litigation and arbitration.

Dr. Borbála Dux, LL.M. (Paris/Cologne) specialises in mass proceedings, large individual proceedings and international arbitration proceedings. These include in particular litigation and the management of mass actions on the defendant side in the areas of product liability, antitrust damages, capital investment and insurance law. She has already worked with Luther teams on major cross-law firm projects.

"With Dr. Borbála Dux, we have gained an excellent litigator and team player who is distinguished by her professional expertise, organizational skills and years of experience in coordinating major mandates," says Dr. Stephan Bausch, Co-Head of the Luther Complex Disputes Team. "With their support, we will continue to develop our sustainable work in complex litigation."

"Luther offers me very good prospects and an excellent environment in which I can further develop my consulting skills," says Dr. Borbála Dux. "I have already worked very well with some of my new colleagues in the past. I am looking forward to becoming a part of the team and to further expanding the Complex Disputes area together."

About Dr. Borbála Dux

Dr. Borbála Dux, LL.M. (Paris/Cologne) is 37 years old. She studied law at the Universities of Cologne and Paris 1 as part of the Franco-German Master's programme and received her doctorate from the University of Cologne.
