Luther wins tax specialist Peter Fabry for the Munich office

Munich – Peter Fabry (50) joined the Munich office of the law firm Luther Rechtsanwalts-gesellschaft mbH as partner on 15 October 2012. Together with Andrea Sandbichler (36, Senior Associate) he will support the Munich tax law team in the future. Previously, Peter Fabry was one of the managing directors in the tax division at the nationwide operating consultancy company RölfsPartner.

Peter Fabry is excited about his transfer to Luther: “I am looking forward to comprehensive tax consulting combined with excellent full service legal advice at a high-end national and international level”. The lawyer and tax adviser specializes in national and international tax organization for succession planning and also for complex investment and financing structures.

Ulrich Siegemund, who heads the Practice Area Tax Advice at Luther, points out: “Mr. Fabry is a perfect addition to our team at Luther. He has vast experience at international level and strengthens a core competence of Luther: offering cross-border, integrated tax and legal advice, especially in cooperation with Taxand”. Managing Partner Prof. Dr. Hans-Georg Hahn adds: “In addition to his special expertise and experience, Mr. Fabry also has management competence and will therefore further support the strategic development at Luther”. After the transfer of Peter Fabry and Andrea Sandbichler the Tax Team of Luther will have 25 advisers. We are expecting additional hires.

Dr. André Große Vorholt, who heads Luther's Munich office, welcomes the new addition: "Due to his long-term work in Munich, Mr. Fabry has an excellent network in the regional economy and is of course a great enrichment for our team".

Peter Fabry's extensive professional experience results from advice to larger medium-sized companies in different industries over several decades. Financial service providers, banks and fund initiators as well as family offices are also his long-term clients.
