Corporate financing expert Dr Jürgen Bremer strengthens Luther's M & A team in Cologne

Cologne – Dr Jürgen Bremer (49) will join Luther's Cologne office as a partner on the 28th of January 2013 where he will strengthen the corporate/M & A team. The corporate financing expert will apply his experience gained advising energy suppliers and waste disposal companies as well as the public sector.

The lawyer previously held the position of managing shareholder for sbc Restrukturierung & Investments AG, a company focused on restructuring and investment projects in Düsseldorf (Germany). "I'm looking forward to supporting private clients and public authorities with future infrastructure projects – especially with a team that is specialised in this field", said Dr Bremer about joining Luther. For example, Luther advised the State of Berlin on the purchase of shares by the energy company RWE in the Berlin waterworks facility, Berliner Wasserbetriebe AöR, and helped the State of Hesse devise a concept to ensure that hospitals continue to be run by local authorities.

"We have gained an extremely experienced partner who brings a great deal of knowledge from advising the energy, waste disposal, restructuring and infrastructure sectors, having advised both groups, mid-cap companies and also the public sector", said Elisabeth Lepique from Luther, who heads the Cologne office and specialises in providing advice to the public sector. "Dr Bremer is also a restructuring and financing expert. Our clients will benefit from his knowledge of acquisitions and restructurings in media supply and PPP projects".
